I. PRESENTATION:

This is a subject for advanced students, in which participants are going to use basic language structures and conversations so that they continue acquiring the new language. It is based on real people, places or events chosen for their variety and interest and includes photographs and recordings of the people featured.

II. GENERAL OBJECTIVES:

- To enable participants to communicate successfully in simple everyday situations.
- To give participants a basic knowledge of grammar, vocabulary and pronunciation.
- To provide participants with the skills and motivation for future language learning.
